Elderly people who live alone should be taken care of.

Elderly people are helpless alone and they need help. They can't do something themselves.

I think the government should build²⁰ the organization which will send people who will come to elderly people to help them.

According to the article I want to express my opinion. I think with such technology⁵⁰ elderly people will feel uncomfortable themselves. They are not our time. They need to talk about something, they need communicating⁷⁰. Different technology will scary elderly people. They will afraid of breaking something.

In conclusion I want to say we should⁹⁰ care of elderly people, be good people for them.
